It's a good idea to join multiple pods to see what may work best for you (ex. One niche pod and one more general like/follow one).

Whether a group is paid or not completely varies. You could stumble across a group on Facebook or DM an account on Instagram to find out you have to hand over money to join that pod. However, you can have greater peace of mind and higher return on investment if you pay for a well-known engagement service. Two well-known ones are:

1. Wolf
2. AiGrow
